

A photograph of a road scene. In the foreground, a wooden post holds a white rectangular sign with a black border that reads "WEIGHT LIMIT 45 TONS". To the left, a metal guardrail runs along the edge of the road, with a black and yellow striped warning sign on a post behind it. The background is filled with dense trees and bushes, some with green leaves and others with yellowing foliage, suggesting an autumn setting. The sky is overcast and grey.
